Welcome

Peter Rabbit™: Tales on the Tyne has captured the hearts and imaginations of the people of the North East this summer, with families, schools, businesses and communities coming together to make this the most exciting public art trail ever seen in the region and it's wonderful follow up to the Great North Snowdogs in 2016, Elmer's Great North Parade in 2019 and Shaun on the Tyne in 2023.

This interactive art trail saw the streets, parks and public spaces of Newcastle and North Tyneside burst with colour and fun and filled our social media feeds with beautiful; bunnies, all inspired by Beatrix Potter's most famous creation.

We wish to say a big thank you to Wild in Art, our event partner, for helping us to bring this incredible event to the region and choosing to work with us as their charity partner and to The World of Peter Rabbit™ for letting us use the much-loved character as the inspiration for our sculptures.

At St Oswald's Hospice, we believe that making special memories and creating magical moments is an important part of the care we offer to adults, children and their families, from across the region. Our ethos is to make the most of the time we have together and spend it with the people we love.

We hope that getting out and about on the trail has allowed you to take some time out from your usual routines and enjoy our beautiful city in the fresh air, with your loved ones.

You now have the once in a lifetime opportunity to own one of these striking, one-off sculptures and give your favourite rabbit a forever home. All profits from the auction will directly support the work of St Oswald's Hospice, in providing specialist care to people of all ages with life limiting conditions, from across the North East. By bidding at our auction, you are helping our team to be there at a difficult time, for families who need us.

Please dig deep, bid generously and help us ensure that the trail's legacy continues to touch the lives of those who need hospice care, for generations to come.
